

2nd International Convention on Language and Applied Linguistics Studies (ICOLALS 2024)

Language canvas: Painting cultural connections, shaping the future

Dear Academicians,

We are delighted to announce the 2nd International Conference on Language and Applied Linguistics Studies, which will be held at Gazi University Gölbaşı Campus on October 11-12, 2024, organized by the College of Foreign Languages at Gazi University.

The theme of our conference is the contribution of current foreign language teaching experiences to shaping the future of language education. This conference aims to bring together educators, practitioners, researchers, and stakeholders interested in language and applied linguistics studies from around the world to exchange ideas and share the results of their work.

We invite all researchers interested in language and applied linguistics studies from all around the world to submit abstracts for oral presentations, workshops, and poster presentations. The conference will be conducted face-to-face in German, Arabic, French, English, and Turkish. For speakers attending from abroad, there will also be an opportunity to participate online. Although not limited to these, the main topics are listed below.
