

ME423 Graduation Design Project I Evaluation Procedure

Ability to access the necessary information and search for resources, use databases, and other sources of information to this end. (30 points)

Determines the subject of study and is aware of project management, risk management, and change management. (25 points)

Has professional basic engineering knowledge. (25 points)

Has the ability to write effective reports by the spelling rule. (20 points)

ME424 Graduation Design Project II Evaluation Procedure

Identifies, defines, formulates, and solves Mechanical Engineering problems. (25 points)

Applies modeling techniques with appropriate engineering methods. (25 points)

Experimentally / numerically designs, builds, collects data, analyzes, and interprets results. (25 points)

Has the ability to write and present effective reports by the spelling rule. (25 points)