

Gazi University Social Contribution Policy

Gazi University has adopted contributing to the lifelong education and development process, being a respected university at national and international level as its mission and vision, and has accepted transferring the produced knowledge to the society through internal and external stakeholders as a fundamental value. In line with this perspective, for the purpose of ensuring local, national and international development and providing society with research based services in political, economic, social, cultural, educational and technologic areas it adopts the principles of;

- ✓ Contributing to carrying out educational activities in line with the needs of the society and to the dissemination of social responsibility awareness,
- ✓ Contributing to regional development by conducting scientific research and consultancy in the fields of economic, social, cultural, education and technology.,
- ✓ Contributing to the development of life long learning culture and learning skills the society,
- ✓ Contributing to local development by preparing and and conducting projects in cooperation with local authorities,
- ✓ Ensuring the development of the region by announcing the technological innovations and applications to the business circles of the products created by the support activities of the Technology Development Zone, Technology Transfer Office and Research and Development Centers, and by providing the necessary trainings for the need for qualified personnel,
- ✓ Contributing to the studies that will meet the needs of the industry, as well as to train more qualified scientists during the academic studies carried out within the scope of university and industry cooperation,
- ✓ Taking measures for, offering suggestions to and raising awareness on environmental issues,
- ✓ Contributing to discovery, protection and development of the cultural richness of the region through research, Providing information on the protection and quality improvement of health and providing services in all stages of health issues within the scope of health services,
- ✓ Encouraeging the dissemination of sports activities for a healthy life and providing opportunities for sports to reach all segments of the society,
- ✓ Contributing, as a university that adopts the basic value of respect for people, to the improvement of infrastructure for individuals with special needs along side educational, social and cultural activities.

